Odd Sock Day – Monday 14th November

Dear Parent/Carer,

On Monday 14th November, we will be celebrating Anti Bullying week. As in previous years, we will be starting the week of with Odd Socks Day.

Odd Socks Day is a chance for schools to celebrate Anti-Bullying Week in a positive way by asking pupils and staff to wear odd socks to school. There is no pressure to wear the latest fashion or buy expensive costumes. All you have to do to take part is wear odd socks, it could not be simpler! We would like your child to come in odd, crazy socks to celebrate people's differences.

Donations collected will go towards a 'Buddy Bench' for our playground. We, the Pupil Parliament, are keen to raise funds for this so that everyone will have somewhere to go if they find themselves with no one to play with. The concept of a buddy bench is to provide a place in the school playground where children can go if they are feeling lonely and would welcome some company or someone to invite them to play.

It's a great way to celebrate what makes us unique in Anti Bullying week so please dig deep for Odd Socks Day.

Yours Sincerely,
Carr Lodge Academy Pupil Parliament

Children in Need Day – Friday 18th November

On Friday, we invite all our pupils to wear non-uniform and participate in the children in need theme of a SPOTacular day. If your child has any spotty clothing or stickers to stick on clothing items, please feel free for them to wear it. Please do not worry though if they have not and please do not go to any expensive to buy any. Just ensure that your child is warm for the day.

All we ask is if you could donate a minimum of a £1 for both causes (odd sock day and children in need) please and let your child give this to the class teacher.

Yours Sincerely,
Mrs Crampton
